Timeline of Hugh Bryan Spencer Womersley

- 1922 Born in Bristol, England.
- 1930 Migrated with family to Perth, Western Australia.
- 1933 Family move to Adelaide, South Australia.
- 1935 Attended Unley High School (to 1939).
- 1939 Graduated Dux, Leaving Honours Class, Unley High School.
- 1940 Attended Adelaide High School.
- 1941 Awarded a Department of Education bursary to study at the University of Adelaide.
- 1943 Completed BSc, University of Adelaide, South Australia.
- 1944 Completed BSc (honours), University of Adelaide – thesis on the marine algae of Kangaroo Island.
- 1945 Awarded a University Research Scholarship.
- 1946 Appointed Lecturer, University of Adelaide (to 1949).
- 1947 Graduated MSc, University of Adelaide.
Attended Australasian Science Congress, Perth, Western Australia (August).
- 1948 Served on Faculty of Science Committee (to 1968, 1970–1972, 1975–1985).
- 1949 Attended Seventh Pacific Science Congress, Auckland (2–22 February).
- 1950 Married to Dorothy Alleyne Crawford.
Appointed Senior Lecturer, Department of Botany, University of Adelaide (to 1960).
- 1951 Awarded Carnegie Foundation Travel Grant (December 1951–March 1953; USA, UK, Europe).
- 1952 Graduated PhD, University of Adelaide.
Attended 1st International Seaweed Symposium, Edinburgh, UK.
- 1955 Awarded Edgeworth David Medal, Royal Society of New South Wales.
- 1958 Served as Chairman, Herbarium Liaison Committee, South Australia (to 1961).
Appointed University member, Herbarium Liaison Committee, South Australia (to 1968).
- 1960 Graduated DSc, University of Adelaide.
Served as Council Member, Royal Society of South Australia (to 1965).
- 1961 Appointed Reader, University of Adelaide (to 1987).
Appointed Member, Board of Governors, Adelaide Botanic Garden (to 1992).
Appointed Acting Head, Department of Botany, University of Adelaide (January 1961–December 1962).

- Took study leave (December 1961–January 1963; New Zealand, USA, Canada, Japan, Hong Kong, Manila).
Attended 10th Pan Pacific Science Congress, Honolulu, Hawaii, USA.
Appointed Member, Flora and Fauna Board of South Australia (to 1972).
- 1962 Awarded Fulbright Travel Grant.
Awarded Royal Society-Nuffield Foundation Commonwealth Bursary
AIBS Meetings, Corvallis.
- 1964 Served as Honorary Curator, Herbarium, University of Adelaide (to 1985).
Served on Sites and Grounds Committee, University of Adelaide (to 1976).
Attended 10th International Botanical Congress, Edinburgh, UK.
Attended AIBS Meetings, Boulder, Colorado, USA.
Served as Member Advisory Committee, Australian Journal of Botany (to 1983).
Served as Council member, Australian Marine Science Association (to 1968).
- 1965 Served on Curriculum Committee, Faculty of Science, University of Adelaide (to 1968).
Participated in Royal Society of London Expedition to the British Solomon Islands Protectorate.
Served as Vice-president, Royal Society of South Australia (to 1966, 1967–1968).
- 1966 Served as President, Royal Society of South Australia (to 1967).
Served as Council Member, International Phycological Society (to 1971).
Served as Commissioner ex officio, National Park and Wildlife Reserves, South Australia (to 1987).
Served as Council member, International Phycological Society (to 1971).
- 1967 Appointed Acting Head, Department of Botany, University of Adelaide (January–June).
- 1968 Attended Discussion meeting, Royal Society of London Expedition to the Solomon Islands, London.
- 1969 Awarded Sir Joseph Verco Medal, Royal Society of South Australia.
Took study leave for six months in Kenya, UK, Europe, USA and New Zealand.
- 1970 Served as President, International Phycological Society.
- 1971 Served as Editor, Royal Society of South Australia journal (to 1976).
Attended 7th International Seaweed Symposium, Tokyo, Japan.
- 1974 Appointed Professor (personal chair), University of Adelaide (to 1987).
Attended 8th International Seaweed Symposium, Bangor, Wales.
- 1976 Appointed Associate Dean, Faculty of Science (also 1978).
Served on Grounds, Buildings & Accommodation Committee (to 1980).
Took study leave for six months from November in Greece, UK, Canada, USA, New Zealand).
- 1977 Appointed Dean, Faculty of Science, University of Adelaide.
Elected Fellow, Australian Academy of Science.
Attended 9th International Seaweed Symposium, Santa Barbara, California.
Served as Member Advisory Committee, South Australian Marine Environment (to 1987).
- 1980 Served as Founding President, Australasian Society for Phycology and Aquatic Botany (to 1981).
- 1981 Attended XIII International Botanical Congress, Sydney, Australia.
- 1982 Took study leave July–December, Victoria, New South Wales and Tasmania.
- 1985 Awarded Clarke Medal, Royal Society of New South Wales.

- Awarded Prescott Award, Phycological Society of America.
- 1986 Awarded Mueller Medal, Australian and New Zealand Association for the Advancement of Science.
Took study leave for three months in Victoria and New South Wales.
- 1987 Retired and appointed Emeritus Professor, University of Adelaide.
Appointed Honorary Associate and Curator of Algae at the State Herbarium, Adelaide.
- 1988 Appointed Honorary Visiting Research Fellow, University of Adelaide.
Appointed Honorary Associate and Curator of Algae, State Herbarium, Adelaide.
- 1994 Awarded Silver Jubilee Award, Australian Marine Sciences Association.
- 1999 Awarded Prescott Award, Phycological Society of America.
- 2001 Awarded Centenary Medal for service to Australian society and science in marine plant biology.
- 2003 Elected Corresponding Member of the American Society for Plant Taxonomy (one of 13 in the world).
Centenary Medal, Australia
- 2004 Awarded South Australia Great Award for Environmental Science.
- 2005 Recipient Nature Conservation Award, Field Naturalists Club of South Australia.

Taxa named after Hugh Bryan Spencer Womersley

- Womersleya* Papenfuss (1956).
Womersleyella Hollenberg (1967).
Champia womersleyi A.J.K. Millar (1998).
Ceramium womersleyi R.E. Norris & I.A. Abbott (1992).
Gayliella womersleyi T.O. Cho, C.A. Maggs & L.J. McIvor (2008).
Gelidiella womersleyana G. Kraft & I.A. Abbott (1998).
Gibsmithia womersleyi G. Kraft & R. Ricker ex Kraft (1986).
