EAGE goes Asia Pacific!

The European Association of Geoscientists & Engineers (EAGE) proudly announces the opening of a regional office in the Asia Pacific region.

The new office is located in Kuala Lumpur and is now fully operational.

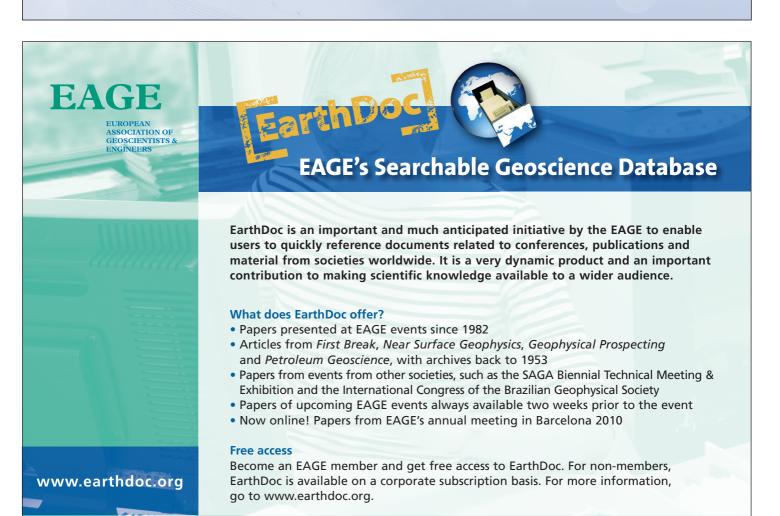

Asia Pacific is identified by EAGE as one of the core areas for developing activities and improving the services to its members. With the opening of the regional office in Kuala Lumpur, EAGE expresses its commitment to serving the geoscience community in this region. EAGE already has a number of events in Asia Pacific and expects this activity to grow. The focus of the office will be on regional conferences, workshops, education activities and publications.

For more information, contact EAGE Asia Pacific at asiapacific@eage.org or check our website.
