

AUSTRALIAN AND NEW ZEALAND CONTINENCE JOURNAL

publish.csiro.au/cj

A peer-reviewed journal connecting health professionals and academics across Australasia with the latest research, insights, and innovations in continence care, from diagnosis and treatment to best practices in promoting continence.

➤ REASONS TO PUBLISH

- High visibility and impact for your research
- Open Access under a choice of Creative Commons licences
- High quality author care, copy editing and production standards
- Rigorous and trustworthy peer review from experts in your field
- Submit to a not-for-profit publisher that is part of the scientific community
- Supported by 75 years of scholarly publishing experience

➤ JOURNAL SCOPE

The Australian and New Zealand Continence Journal is unique as it is the only multi-disciplinary journal published, in Australasia, specifically specialising in continence issues.

A variety of topics are possible and include, but are not limited to: outcome studies, aged care, paediatrics, pregnancy and childbirth, novel drug therapies, reviews of devices, surgical or non-surgical interventions and evaluation, assessment articles, literature reviews of incontinence-related topics, home and community care issues and successes, men's health, nursing management, physiotherapy management, support by other allied health disciplines (including occupational therapy, psychology and social work), the psychological impact of living with incontinence, ethical issues, cultural issues and collaborative approaches to care.

All papers are double-anonymised peer reviewed and may be original research, clinical updates, case studies or evaluation of programs.

➤ ABOUT CSIRO PUBLISHING

As a not-for-profit, editorially independent business unit within the Commonwealth Scientific and Industrial Research Organisation (CSIRO), we are proudly part of the research community.

Our peer-reviewed journals are published in partnership with The Australian Academy of Science and a range of society partners.
